Merry Christmas

Cookies for Santa

The little mice gather by the hearth, their tiny paws tucked up to glow. In cozy nooks and crannies, they share tales of Santa's sleigh and his grace. Their whiskers all twinkle, shining bright, as they wait for his visit on this special night. Tiny stockings are hung with care, in hopes that St. Nicholas soon will be there. They nibble on cookies sweet and divine, sipping hot cocoa, their favorite time. On Meadow View Lane, in the land of small mice, they sing carols and share love, like a charm. With hearts full of wonder, so true, so free, this mouse community's Christmas is pure harmony. So, for every little mouse's delight, may this Christmas be merry, and oh so bright! In the land of small woods, where the mice sweetly reign.
